ABOUT US

Come Walk with Me into Womanhood is a 100% black owned private organisation founded by two black women in 01/03/2019. We provide gender-based violence awareness and educate on aspects like, Societal expectations, Power and Control, and Disregard of human rights.

We empower women and provide counselling services to any member of our communities in Gauteng, Mpumalanga, Limpopo and North West provinces.

Our goal is to reach out and provide emotional support and healing to girls and women in our country who are being abused by the people close to them, and their intimate partners.

We have accumulated knowledge in areas of customer service, public speaking, counselling, motivating, and trauma nursing.
